

2017 Urban Harvest Certified Kitchen Use Form

For prepared/processed food vendors

I understand that all food prepared or processed for resale in the State of North Dakota must comply with the State of North Dakota's rules and regulations for such items.

Therefore, all food must be prepared in a certified and inspected kitchen.

All foods prepared or processed in any state other than North Dakota must comply with all federal rules and regulations to include nutrifacts labeling as well as the use of a federally inspected kitchen.

It is the seller's responsibility to ensure compliance with all regulations including on the site of Urban Harvest. Mobile Food/Temporary Food Requirements are outlined in the following document on the North Dakota Health Department website:

Urban Harvest will not be held liable for any failure of the seller to comply with applicable regulations.

Violations of these guidelines which result in any liabilities will be grounds for forfeiture of membership and selling privileges at Urban Harvest until proof of compliance is received.

More information about rules and regulations is available from the Bismarck Public Health Department at 221 North 5th Street, Bismarck ND 58501 or their website at www.bismarck.org. Their e-mail address is bbph@state.nd.us.
